

WRITING GUIDE ADVENTURE

When you write, place yourself in the setting of the story.

- ❖ Fun story
 - Be adventurous, colorful, imaginative, and innovative!!!
- ❖ Serious story
 - Feel the sincerity, tenacity, urge, purpose, darkness that surrounds you
- ❖ Sad story
 - Capture the emotions of gloominess, determination, solemnity, compassion

BRAINSTORM

Then...write down everything that goes through your mind about the topic! Don't worry about the format, rules of grammar, spelling, etc. Let your mind flow and generate the experience come in words. Do this for 10 minutes.

INTRODUCTION (Write what you want to talk about)

Once 10 minutes is up, summarize the collection of your thoughts in groups or categories, in the sequence of events, importance, subject, etc.

- ❖ Attention grabber - Select one type of opening sentence: Joke, proverb (old saying) or quote, anecdote – a fantastic story, surprising fact, curiosity (ask a question).
- ❖ Two or three main ideas you want to talk about
- ❖ Thesis – Are you for or against? Why do you want people to read your essay?

BODY

❖ Group 1

- Discuss group 1
- Give examples (at least two)
- What else can I say about the example?
 - Go back to the book, passage, assignment, or into the internet to find out what you learn.

❖ Group 2

- Discuss group 2
- Give examples (at least two)
- What else can I say about the example?
 - Go back to the book, passage, assignment, or into the internet to find out what you learn.

❖ Group 3

- Discuss group 3
- Give examples (at least two)
- What else can I say about the example?
 - Go back to the book, passage, assignment, or into the internet to find out what you learn.

CONCLUSION

Reword your introduction and why you chose the topic.

