

Title I Social Services

WHERE CAN I FIND INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS WITH SOCIAL, EMOTIONAL, BEHAVIORAL OR FINANCIAL CONCERNS?

Marci Morrison is a full-time Licensed Clinical School Social Worker at Barry Goldwater High School. She helps meet the social, emotional, behavioral and academic needs of adolescents. Marci runs various counseling groups such as anger management, anxiety, depression, motivation, social skills and dealing with life transitions. She also helps students in crisis and helps families with community referrals for financial and many other needs.

School Social Workers are a vital part of the educational team, working together with educational administrators, teachers, counselors, psychologists, nurses, speech and language pathologists and other staff. Their unique graduate level training in social work enables them to understand and interpret the influences of the school, home, and community on adolescents.

Sarah Guertin is a Licensed Social Worker and has been practicing in the mental health field since 2010. During that time, she has worked with children, teens, families and adults. Sarah offers counseling services at Barry Goldwater High School through their partnership with Southwest Behavioral Health Services. Counseling services can help address issues concerning depression, anxiety, anger, trauma, self-harm, poor self-esteem and many other concerns. Please contact your student's guidance counselor for more information.
