Standards and Expectations

Course Requirements: The rigor and challenge of this course will be met with enthusiasm and collaboration between all dual students and faculty alike. This is not merely an in-depth, higher level high school course; rather, it is a college course. Students in dual enrollment English courses are not only preparing for college, but are actually taking those first few steps into college and collegial study. The rigor and challenge of this course will be met with enthusiasm and collaboration between all dual students and faculty alike.

Grading:

- Grades are determined as a percentage of total points earned: 90-100=A; 80-89=B; 70-79=C; 60-69=D and 59% or less =F.
- No assignments are accepted after the due date. A zero may be recorded for any late assignment.
- Retakes are not permissible on any quizzes, tests, or exams; however, teacher-selected opportunities for composition revisions and rewrites will be made available.
- All major essays must be submitted to Canvas on/before 7:30am on the assigned due date. If a student fails to submit a paper on the assigned due date the student will lose 10 percentage points per school day until the paper is properly submitted.

Attendance Standards: Since full and active participation is essential to success in this course, full attendance is required. Students are not allowed to miss more than six class periods per semester. Upon the 7th absence, the student may lose college credit.

Additional Attendance Items:

1. If a student is suspended (whether on campus or off campus) the days may count against his/her overall attendance.
2. All college visits and college orientations are personal extra-curricular decisions and will not be exempted from the dual enrollment attendance policy. Please plan accordingly.
3. Sweep is counted as an absence.

Absences: After an absence, a student has one school day for each day missed to make up work/tests, regardless of the number of days absent. If many days were missed, please schedule an appointment with me to formulate a plan for the completion of make-up work. Make-up work for extended absences (over 3 days) may be requested through the Counseling Office and picked up there.
