

Outdoor Landscape

Directions: Grab a flat surface like a book and take your paper and pencil (or other supplies) outside. In France, they call this “Plein Air” and it was very popular during the Impressionism movements. Draw the nature around you as you see it. Feel free to add color using supplies you have at home. Don’t forget to draw the “Horizon Line” where the sky meets the land.

<https://www.bramptonartclasses.com/home/ages-5-7-intro-to-art/landscapes-student-work/>

Don't forget to post your project online at Artsonia. See instructions on