

Desert Sage Fourth Grade

Mandarin Learning in Action

Reading: For this week's reading selection, students will learn to recognize characteristics of a folktale, retell events, gain exposure to literary elements.

Writing: Students will revise and properly punctuate dialogue in their personal narrative.

Social Studies: This week we are learning to compare the fall or decline of the Maya, Aztec, and Inca Empires.

Science: This week students will continue to carry out an investigation to explore and explain the interactions between Earth's major systems and the impact on Earth's surface materials and processes.

Math: In topic E, students use the algorithm to subtract numbers from 1 million allowing for multiple decompositions. We will be finishing module 1 this week.

Mandarin: We will continue to work on N3 unit 10 literacy activities to build:

- Listening and reading comprehension skills
- Writing and typing skills
- Sentence making skills

Powerschool:

Please continue to monitor your child's powerschool account <http://ps.dvusd.org/public> If your child would like to make up any assignments/tests to improve their grade, please have them contact their teacher.
