Mandarin Matrix website offers students opportunity to practice listening, speaking, reading, and writing. It also offers learning prize to motivate students. I will let you know what your child needs to do. There is a lot of fun stuff. Feel free to explore, but please no need to feel overwhelmed.

Your child's login info is as follows (please login via student login page):

		Please ask the teacher for information	The same as their computer login password

Please read 20 minutes per day to inforce your child's language skill. Please color one block whenever he/she read that day. There will be reward for students who can complete all 20 days for this month ☺
