

Kindergarten Behavior Self-Assessment Forms

August 28, 2018

Dear Mr. Tsang & Ms. Chen's families,

As you know, each day your child brings home their own "My Behavior Self-Assessment" form letting you know overall how their day went. We will be continuing this daily communication with you but are making a small tweak to it. Beginning tomorrow, Wednesday, August 29 the form will be completed for both the AM time AND the PM time. When students switch to their next teacher for the day they will begin fresh on "I had a great day!" Below is an example of what the revised form will look like.

We are making this adjustment to help students to feel successful as they become accustomed to kindergarten life and the multiple transitions throughout the day.

Teachers may write notes to you about the day if needed as well. You are also always welcome to write a note back or email the teacher with questions that you may have. Be sure to reach out to the specific teacher that you have the questions for.

Thank you for your understanding and we hope that you find the additional bit of information about your child's day helpful.

If you have questions, please to contact us.

Thank you,

Mr. Tsang

Mitchell.tsang@dvusd.org 623-445-4752

Ms. Chen

Xiaoting.chen@dvusd.org 623-445-4753

A sample of the "My Behavior Self-Assessment" form for the AM. The form includes fields for Name and Week of, a title "MY BEHAVIOR SELF-ASSESSMENT", a section for self-assessment with a grid of days (Monday-Friday) and four emoji options (happy, neutral, sad, very sad), and a "Parent Initials" column. An "EMOJI KEY" at the bottom explains the emoji choices: "I went above and beyond today!" (happy), "I had a great day!" (neutral), "I couldn't do it better" (sad), and "Geez! I didn't do my best today." (very sad).

AM

A sample of the "My Behavior Self-Assessment" form for the PM. The form includes fields for Name and Week of, a title "MY BEHAVIOR SELF-ASSESSMENT", a section for self-assessment with a grid of days (Monday-Friday) and four emoji options (happy, neutral, sad, very sad), and a "Parent Initials" column. An "EMOJI KEY" at the bottom explains the emoji choices: "I went above and beyond today!" (happy), "I had a great day!" (neutral), "I couldn't do it better" (sad), and "Geez! I didn't do my best today." (very sad).

PM